INTRODUCTION

The Department of Defense Education Activity (DoDEA) is a major Department of the Defense (DoD) field activity with worldwide scope. DoDEA delivers, in military communities worldwide, exemplary educational programs that inspire and prepare all students for success in a global environment. The Domestic Dependent Elementary and Secondary Schools (DDESS), located within the continental United States as well as Guam and Puerto Rico, and the Department of Defense Dependents Schools (DoDDS), located in foreign areas, provide a preschool through grade 12 educational program that inspires and prepares all students for success in a global environment. DoDEA is one of the largest, most diverse and geographically dispersed school jurisdictions. All schools in DoDEA are fully accredited and the DoDEA educational program consistently rates at or near the top in comparison with other school systems.

This standardized position description for Teacher, Mildly to Moderately Impaired is appropriate for use at any DoDEA school. The Teacher provides a variety of special education services including instruction, assessment and program planning for students with disabilities.

SUPERVISORY CONTROLS

Work is performed under the supervision of the School Principal. Additional technical guidance is provided by the district Special Education Coordinator. The Teacher works independently and collaboratively within the framework of special education procedures. Effectiveness of instruction, and day-to-day methods of instruction are subject to review by the Principal and district Special Education Coordinator through observation and evaluation of program and overall results achieved.

MAJOR DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

Provides instruction, assessment, and program planning for students with a range of disabilities, including intellectual, physical, communication, learning, and emotional disabilities. Works with the Case Study Committee (CSC) to provide pre-referral interventions, administer screening tests for academic and behavioral concerns of referred students, and, as necessary, administer diagnostic academic assessments for students suspected of having a disability through a variety of assessment options (formal and informal); interprets assessment results for team members and parents. Uses assessment results and student performance to inform and differentiate instruction. Provides diagnostic-prescriptive instruction, remediation activities, and educational intervention strategies in a variety of settings to include but not limited to resource room, general education classroom, consultation, and collaboration (co-teaching).

Differentiates instruction for individual student learning styles and unique learning needs; collaborates with teachers, school-based specialists, resource personnel, and community resources; selects, adapts, and/or modifies curriculum materials to meet individual needs and provide effective strategies to assist students to master grade level content standards.

Serves as an informational resource for teachers, students, parents, district personnel, and community organizations; responds to inquires and provides information, recommendations, and interpretations of student records. Provides consultant services to classroom teachers to facilitate carry-over of academic and behavioral gains into classroom activities; works collaboratively with classroom teachers to identify children at risk for literacy (reading/writing/math) difficulties, and provides interventions to assist teachers in working with students with literacy difficulties including demonstrating interventions.

Documents student progress through the use of formative and summative assessment tools; recognizes and respects diversity; demonstrates sensitivity and respect for each student's background experience and culture; maintains individual records using the school information system as appropriate.

Adheres to and implements safety and security procedures; creates a school climate conducive to learning, achievement, and citizenship; participates in professional development opportunities and committee activities to review, evaluate, and develop educational materials to improve the educational program; participates in DoDEA system-wide assessment programs; informs school administration of education deficiencies, critical issues, and emergencies; supervises students in outside activities, lunchroom, and bus arrivals and departures; and may be assigned to serve as a sponsor, coach, or consultant of an extracurricular activity.

Performs other duties as assigned.
