INTRODUCTION

The Department of Defense Education Activity (DoDEA) is a major Department of the Defense (DoD) field activity with worldwide scope. DoDEA delivers, in military communities worldwide, exemplary educational programs that inspire and prepare all students for success in a global environment. The Domestic Dependent Elementary and Secondary Schools (DDESS), located within the continental United States as well as Guam and Puerto Rico, and the Department of Defense Dependents Schools (DoDDS), located in foreign areas, provide a preschool through grade 12 educational program that inspires and prepares all students for success in a global environment. DoDEA is one of the largest, most diverse and geographically dispersed school jurisdictions. All schools in DoDEA are fully accredited and the DoDEA educational program consistently rates at or near the top in comparison with other school systems.

This standardized position description for Teacher, Emotionally Impaired is appropriate for use at any DoDEA school. The Teacher provides a variety of special education services including instruction, assessment and program planning for students with emotional impairments.

SUPERVISORY CONTROLS

Work is performed under the supervision of the School Principal. Additional technical guidance is provided by the district Special Education Coordinator. The Teacher works independently and collaboratively within the framework of special education procedures. Effectiveness of services and day-to-day instruction are subject to periodic review by the Principal and district Special Education Coordinator through observation and evaluation of the program and overall results achieved.

MAJOR DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

Primarily provides instruction, assessment and program planning for special education students with emotional impairments but may also provide services for students presenting challenging behaviors who have not been identified as needing special education services.

Works with Case Study Committee (CSC) to provide pre-referral interventions, screenings, and assessments (formal and informal) for students suspected of having a disability. Interprets assessment results for team members and parents; participates in developing Individual Education Program (IEP) goals and objectives for eligible students; suggests alternate resources, programs or interventions for students not found eligible for special education.

Uses assessment data and student performance to inform and differentiate instructions; provides diagnostic-prescriptive instruction in a variety of settings to include but not limited to resource room, general education classroom, consultation, and collaboration. Assists in the development, implementation, monitoring, and revision of behavioral intervention plans for students who require them.

Serves as an informational resource for students, parents, district personnel and community organizations; responds to inquiries and provides information, recommendations and interpretation of student records. Provides consultant services to all teachers to facilitate the carry-over of behavioral gains to various settings; works collaboratively with school staff and teams to identify students at risk for emotional difficulties or those presenting challenging behaviors; provides and demonstrates interventions to assist teachers in working with students. Documents student progress through the use of formative and summative assessment tools; prepares reports related to assigned activities and student progress and behavior; maintains individual student records using the school information system as appropriate.

Adheres to and implements safety and security procedures; creates a school climate conducive to learning, achievement, and citizenship; participates in professional development opportunities and committee activities to review, evaluate, and develop educational materials to improve the educational program; participates in DoDEA system-wide assessment programs; informs school administration of education deficiencies, critical issues, and emergencies; supervises students in outside activities, lunchroom, and bus arrivals and departures; and may be assigned to serve as a sponsor, coach, or consultant of an extracurricular activity.

Performs other duties as assigned.

OTHER SIGNIFICANT FACTS

Incumbent will be required to respect the privacy and sensitivities of students and parents by controlling and restricting personal information to those with a “need to know.”

The incumbent may be required to travel by military and/or commercial aircraft, land, or sea transportation to a variety of stateside and/or overseas locations for meetings and conferences. The incumbent may be subject to a variety of environmental conditions, to include the potential for exposure to acts of terrorism.
