INTRODUCTION

The Department of Defense Education Activity (DoDEA) is a major Department of the Defense (DoD) field activity with worldwide scope. DoDEA delivers, in military communities worldwide, exemplary educational programs that inspire and prepare all students for success in a global environment. The Domestic Dependent Elementary and Secondary Schools (DDESS), located within the continental United States as well as Guam and Puerto Rico, and the Department of Defense Dependents Schools (DoDDS), located in foreign areas, provide a preschool through grade 12 educational program that inspires and prepares all students for success in a global environment. DoDEA is one of the largest, most diverse and geographically dispersed school jurisdictions. All schools in DoDEA are fully accredited and the DoDEA educational program consistently rates at or near the top in comparison with other school systems.

This standardized position for Educational Prescriptionist is appropriate for use at any DoDEA school. The Educational Prescriptionist conducts diagnostic assessments and evaluations to identify students with special needs and exceptional students, and formulates educational prescriptions to assist teachers in meeting individual student needs.

SUPERVISORY CONTROLS

Work is performed under the supervision of the School Principal. Additional technical guidance is provided by the district Special Education Coordinator. The Educational Prescriptionist works independently within established frameworks including special education procedures as they relate to assessment and eligibility. The individual also frequently works as a member of a coordinated school team of teachers, therapists, special education teachers, psychologists, nurses and/or social workers. Plans, materials, assessment reports, and eligibility reports are subject to general or spot review by the Principal with technical guidance as needed from the district Special Education Coordinator to evaluate the individual's continuing effectiveness.

MAJOR DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

Receives referrals from teachers, principals and parents of students who present special needs. Completes achievement assessments and/or evaluations. Reports results to teachers and parents verbally and in writing.

Identifies students with specific learning needs and/or adaptive behavior inefficiencies that interfere with learning. Formulates educational prescriptions to assist teachers in providing attention to individual needs in the regular classroom. Provides or suggests materials required for implementation or prescription. Demonstrates diagnostic teaching techniques. Provides consultation services to principal and other school personnel to assist in the management of students with learning and behavior disorders.

Initiates parent interviews to obtain a background history on cases studied. Interprets results of evaluations to parents and offers recommendations for home management. Provides or suggests materials to be used by parents. Frequently performs brief follow-up interviews.

Provides short term counseling to students and parents. Provides parents and students with suggestions and materials necessary to support counseling goals. Assists parents and students in preparing and following behavior modification programs.

Completes necessary re-evaluations to provide adequate follow-up services to children referred.

Participates in in-service training programs for regular classroom teachers to assist them in improving and increasing instructional strategies. Participates in workshops for parents and assists them in increasing skills in child management and stimulation.

Adheres to and implements safety and security procedures; creates a school climate conducive to learning, achievement, and citizenship; participates in professional development opportunities and committee activities to review, evaluate, and develop educational materials to improve the educational program; participates in DoDEA system-wide assessment programs; informs school administration of education deficiencies, critical issues, and emergencies; supervises students in outside activities, lunchroom, and bus arrivals and departures; and may be assigned to serve as a sponsor, coach, or consultant of an extracurricular activity.

Performs other duties as assigned.

OTHER SIGNIFICANT FACTS

Incumbent will be required to respect the privacy and sensitivities of students and parents by controlling and restricting personal information to those with a “need to know.”

The incumbent may be required to travel by military and/or commercial aircraft, land, or sea transportation to a variety of stateside and/or overseas locations for meetings and conferences. The incumbent may be subject to a variety of environmental conditions, to include the potential for exposure to acts of terrorism.
