

Grade 11 - E2 Writing

Writing is a process through which a writer shapes language to communicate effectively. Writing often develops through a series of initial plans and multiple drafts and through access to informed feedback and response. Purpose, audience, and context contribute to the form and substance of writing as well as to its style, tone, and stance.

E2a: The student produces a report that:

E2a.1 engages the reader by establishing a context, creating a persona, and otherwise developing reader interest;

E2a.2 develops a controlling idea that conveys a perspective on the subject;

E2a.3 creates an organizing structure appropriate to purpose, audience, and context;

E2a.4 includes appropriate facts and details;

E2a.5 excludes extraneous and inappropriate information;

E2a.6 uses a range of appropriate strategies, such as providing facts and details, describing or analyzing the subject, narrating a relevant anecdote, comparing and contrasting, naming, explaining benefits or limitations, demonstrating claims or assertions, and providing a scenario to illustrate;

E2a.7 provides a sense of closure to the writing.

Examples of reports include:

- ❑ An I-search essay (an essay that details a student's search for information as well as the information itself; I-search papers are developed through a variety of means, e.g. interviews, observation, internet, as well as traditional library research).
- ❑ A saturation report (a report that recounts substantial information on a topic gathered by a student over a period of time).
- ❑ A report produced as part of studies in subjects such as science, social studies, and mathematics.
