0414 Speech/Language Pathologist (Assessor)

INTRODUCTION:

The Department of Defense Education Activity (DoDEA) is a major Department of the Defense (DoD) field activity with worldwide scope. DoDEA delivers, in military communities worldwide, exemplary educational programs that inspire and prepare all students for success in a global environment. The Domestic Dependent Elementary and Secondary Schools (DDESS), located within the continental United States as well as Guam and Puerto Rico, and the Department of Defense Dependents Schools (DoDDS), located in foreign areas, provide a preschool through grade 12 educational program that inspires and prepares all students for success in a global environment. DoDEA is one of the largest, most diverse and geographically dispersed school jurisdictions. All schools in DoDEA are fully accredited and the DoDEA educational program consistently rates at or near the top in comparison with other school systems.

This standardized position for Speech/Language Pathologist (Assessor) is appropriate for use at any DoDEA school. The Speech/Language Pathologist (Assessor) manages or co-manages the special education assessment process from the assessment planning meeting through the eligibility meeting, conducting diagnostic assessments for students in the initial or re-evaluation stages of eligibility in the special education process and providing diagnostic assessments for students with Individual Education Programs (IEP) who may need further evaluation to determine if there is a need for a significant change in an area such as eligibility.

SUPERVISORY CONTROLS:

Work is performed under supervision of the School Principal. Additional technical guidance is provided by the district Special Education Coordinator. The Assessor works independently within the framework of special education procedures as they relate to assessment and eligibility. Long range plans to implement the required assessments and eligibility meetings are subject to general or spot review by the Principal. Assessment reports and eligibility reports are subject to periodic audit by the Principal with technical guidance as needed from the district Special Education Coordinator to evaluate the Assessor's continuing effectiveness.

MAJOR DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES:

The major duties of this position are in support of the case study committee (CSC) and leading the special education process for assessment of students with a suspected disability and eligibility determination. Collaborates with the school CSC to support the special education process of assessment and eligibility. Participates in assessment planning meetings; co-manages steps in the assessment process to include data management requirements; schedules pre-staffing meetings with CSC to review assessment results as needed; and provides professional development on identified needs related to the special education process from referral through IEP development.

Administers, interprets and synthesizes assessments. Administers assigned assessments and completes individual assessment summaries in compliance with DoDEA guidance; completes a synthesis of data for the CSC Eligibility Report to include a comprehensive synthesis of data from all assessment and evaluative reports, identifies the relationship of findings to educational functioning, student's strengths and limitations, and instructional recommendations to be used in working with the student.

Monitors assessment/eligibility activities for compliance with timelines. Facilitates the completion of assessment with other assessors, ensures all assessment reports are completed within the compliance timelines, and ensures eligibility meeting is held within the compliance timeline.

Collaborates with school CSCs in the organization of eligibility meetings. Facilitates scheduling of eligibility meetings, ensures issuance of invitations to eligibility meetings, and participates in eligibility meetings.

Adheres to and implements safety and security procedures; creates a school climate conducive to learning, achievement, and citizenship; participates in professional development opportunities and committee activities to review, evaluate, and develop educational materials to improve the educational program; participates in DoDEA system-wide assessment programs; informs school administration of education deficiencies, critical issues, and emergencies; supervises students in outside activities, lunchroom, and bus arrivals and departures; and may be assigned to serve as a sponsor, coach, or consultant of an extracurricular activity.

Performs other duties as assigned.
