INTRODUCTION

The Department of Defense Education Activity (DoDEA) is a major Department of Defense (DoD) field activity with worldwide scope and the critical mission of ensuring that high quality education programs, from preschool through grade 12, are provided for eligible dependents of DoD military service members and civilian employees stationed in 13 foreign countries, seven states, Guam, and Puerto Rico. DoDEA is comprised of the Department of Defense Dependents Schools (DoDDS), the overseas component, and the Department of Defense Domestic Dependent Elementary and Secondary Schools (DDESS), the “stateside” component. DoDEA currently operates over 223 schools which employ approximately 14,500 professional educators and support staff serving over 101,500 students. DoDEA is one of the largest, most diverse and geographically dispersed school jurisdictions. DoDEA schools are fully accredited by U.S. regional accreditation agencies, and the DoDEA educational program consistently rates at or near the top in comparison with other U.S. school systems.

This standardized position description for Monitor YB-0303-01 is appropriate for use in any DoDEA school. The purpose of the work is to perform simple repetitive lunchroom, recess, classroom, and bus monitoring duties. In performing some of these duties, the safety and welfare of the students are the primary concerns. The Monitor identifies and reports known or suspected problems, issues, or concerns to the appropriate staff, faculty member, or other official (e.g., military police) in accordance with established policies and procedures. The work may be performed in a cafeteria, a designated lunch site, outdoor or indoor recess area, a bus loading and unloading area, or any combination of these or similar areas.

MAJOR DUTIES

Assembles students at designated points and monitors dismissal and movement through halls while moving students to the cafeteria. Monitors lunchroom activities to maintain order. Brings problems and consistent student misbehavior to the attention of the Lead Monitor. Monitors lunchroom cleanup and assists students to place paper and uneaten food into appropriate disposal receptacles. At the end of the lunch period, assembles students at designated lineup areas for movement back to the classrooms.

Monitors a designated recess area. Assures safe recess activities by demonstrating safe play practices and use of playground equipment. Enforces safety rules. Maintains order and safety to prevent unsafe/dangerous practices. Prevents altercations between students.

Monitors a designated number of classrooms by patrolling the halls and classrooms. Assists students to use the restrooms and instructs in basic personal hygiene practices.

Where applicable, performs bus monitoring duties by assuring students safely enter and exit buses and are placed on the right bus when departing for home.

Performs other duties as assigned.

FACTOR EVALUATION STATEMENTS

Factor 1, Knowledge Required by the Position

Ability and skill in working with children of all ages in a school setting, to include the ability to effectively communicate with children.

Knowledge of and skill with non-physical disciplinary practices sufficient to maintain discipline and to keep order, within the limits specified in DoDEA or school policy.

Knowledge of and skill with common eating and lunchroom practices sufficient to assist young students to perform lunchroom activities in an orderly manner, such as opening containers, using napkins and utensils, properly disposing of trash, and washing hands.

Knowledge of and skill with behavior control techniques sufficient to motivate and assist students to maintain clean lunchroom facilities, restrooms, and playground areas.

Knowledge of and skill with common games and activities sufficient to control recess areas and play activities by encouraging and promoting appropriate behavior.

Knowledge of and skill with safety sufficient to maintain a safe environment and to demonstrate basic safety practices.

Knowledge of and skill with methods and techniques of identifying and reporting issues, problems, or concerns potentially affecting student health or welfare.

Factor 2, Supervisory Controls

Clear, detailed, and specific instructions are given by the principal, teacher, or work leader. The employee seeks assistance on all matters not specifically covered in the original instructions. The work is closely controlled by its structured nature. The supervisory review consists of checking work in process or reviewing completed work for adequacy and adherence to instructions.

Factor 3, Guidelines

Specific guidelines are available in the form of standard operating procedures (SOPs) and checklists covering all tasks in detail. No deviations from the guidelines are permitted unless authorized.

Factor 4, Complexity

The work consists of tasks that are clear-cut and directly related. There is little or no choice to be made in deciding what needs to be done. Actions to be taken or responses to be made are readily discernible. Tasks are easily mastered within a short period of time, and allow few or no choices.

Factor 5, Scope and Effect

The performance of specific lunchroom and recess monitoring tasks comprises a discrete segment of student care that facilitates the work of education professionals and aids the completion of educational services. There is little impact beyond the timely provision of services to others.

Factor 6, Personal Contacts

Contacts are with students, teaching personnel, school administrators, and support personnel.

Factor 7, Purpose of Contacts

The purpose of contacts with the school staff is to give and receive information. Contacts with students are to provide basic information or instructions concerning activities, safety practices, or to assist them in performing simple tasks.

Factor 8, Physical Demands

Duties require long periods of moving about the work area. Working with students requires regular and recurring bending, stooping, lifting, stretching, or similar physical activities associated with working with young children.

Factor 9, Work Environment

Lunchroom, recess, and bus monitoring tasks are performed in a school setting in which the employee observes normal safety precautions for a school environment. Some positions are located overseas, requiring accommodation to foreign culture and adjustment to a variety of personal inconveniences, to include the possibility of exposure to terrorist attacks.
