

Pearson Access for Students
Revised 11/27/18

1. Type <https://schoolology.dodea.edu/> into the Google Chrome Browser.

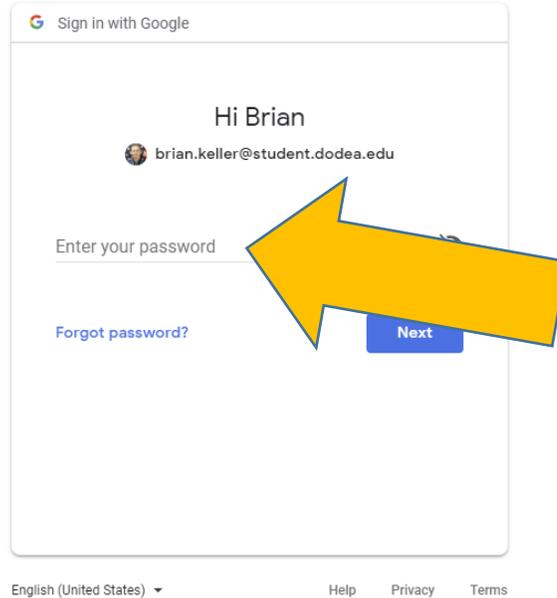

2. Log into Schoology using your DoDEA student Google email address.
  - a. My Email is _____ @student.dodea.edu

Pearson Access for Students
Revised 11/27/18

3. Log into Schoology using your DoDEA student Google email address.
  - a. My Password is _____

4. This is the new home screen. You will see course updates and reminders here. Note the group of four blocks in the upper right hand corner.

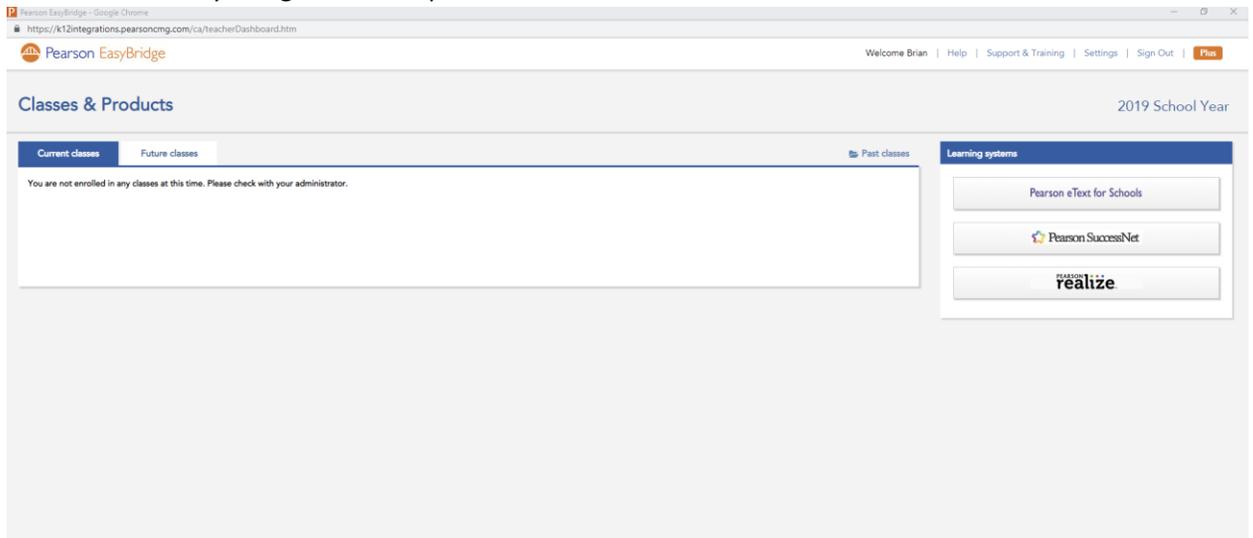

Pearson Access for Students
Revised 11/27/18

5. The icon with four blocks will open the App shortcuts. Click it. Then select the Pearson App.

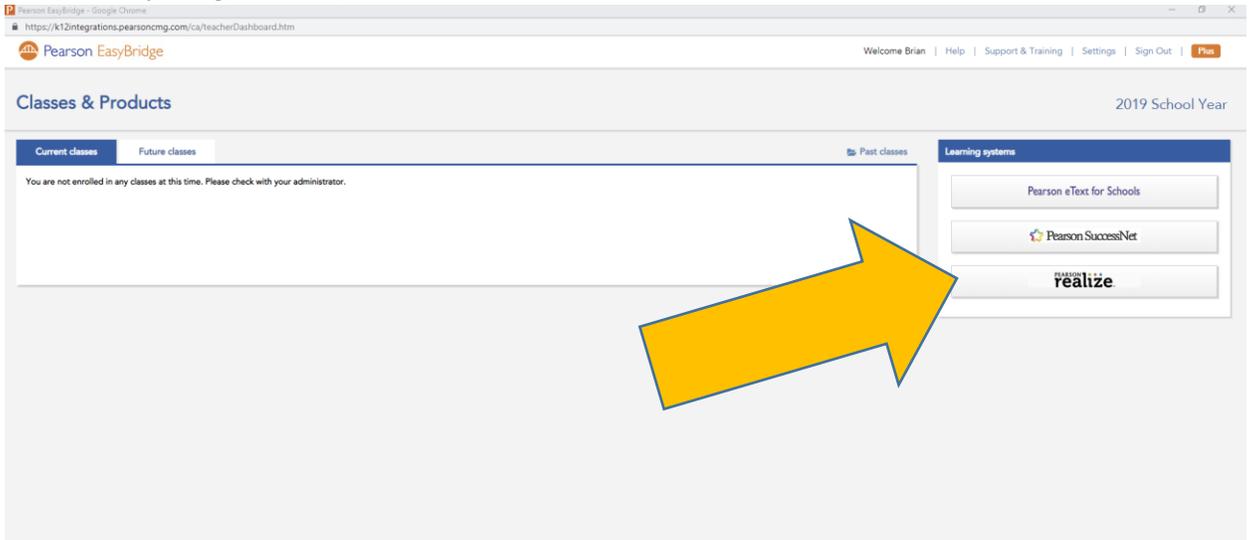

6. The Pearson “Easy Bridge” should open in a new screen. It should look like the screen below.

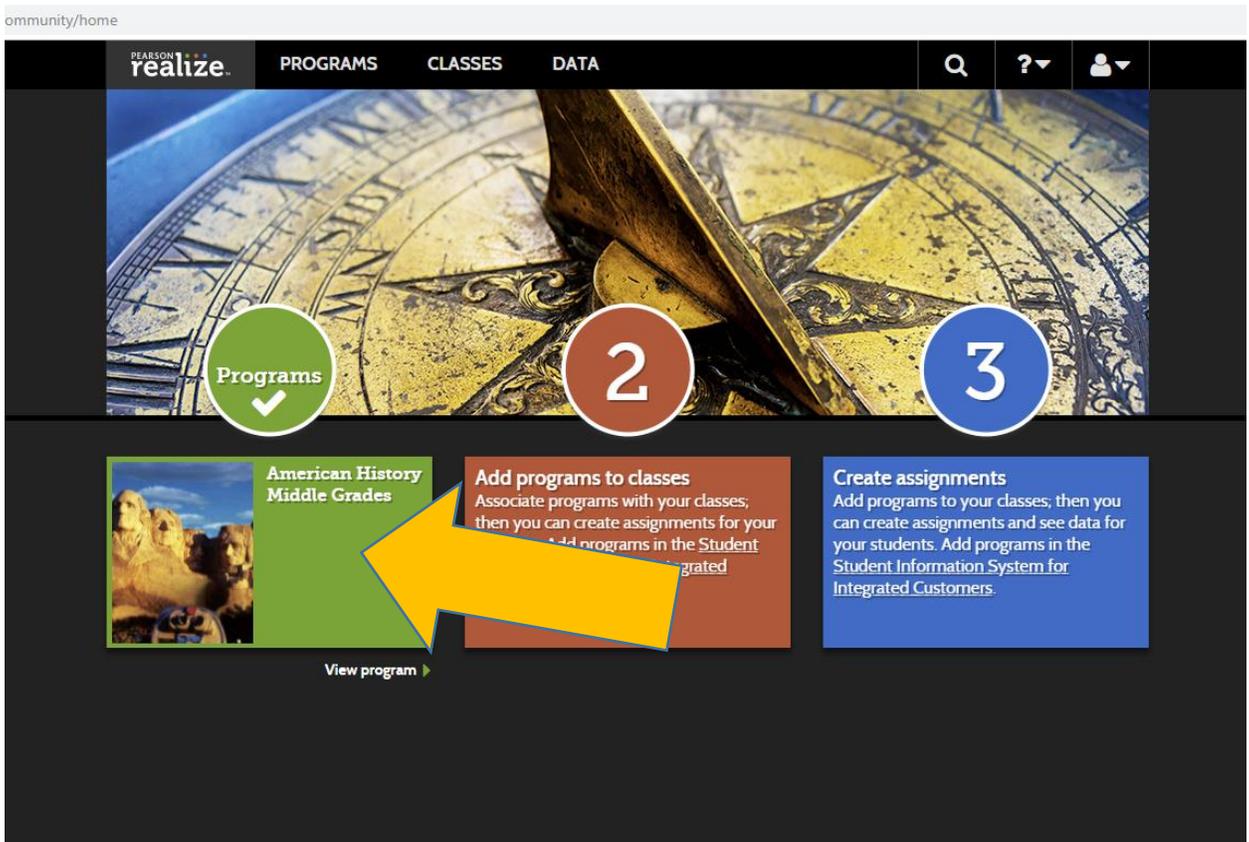

Pearson Access for Students
Revised 11/27/18

7. On the “Easy Bridge” screen, click on the Pearson Realize Icon.

8. Once the Pearson Realize screen opens. Click on the “American History Middle Grades” icon.

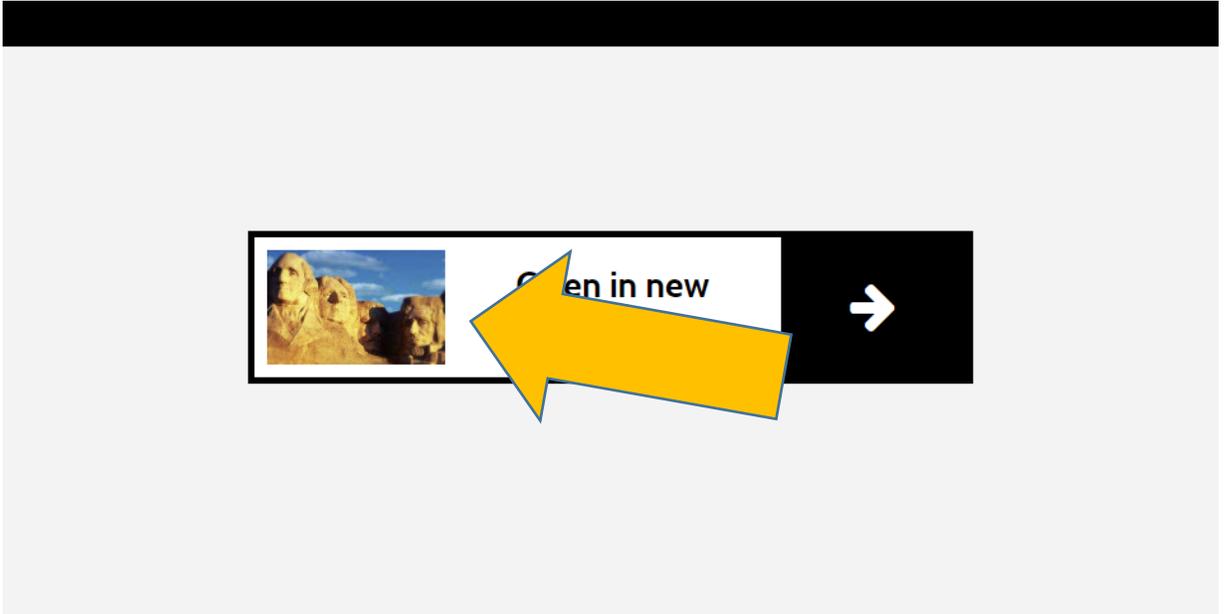

9. This will open the Table of Contents. Look for and click the words “eText” to open your textbook.

The screenshot shows the Pearson Realize interface for 'American History Middle Grades'. At the top, there is a navigation bar with 'PROGRAMS', 'CLASSES', and 'DATA' tabs, along with search, help, and user icons. Below this, the course title 'American History Middle Grades' is displayed, followed by a sub-navigation bar with 'Table of contents', 'Resources', 'Standards', and 'eText'. A yellow arrow points to the 'eText' link. Below the navigation bar, there are two view options: 'Thumbnail view' and 'List view'. The main content area is titled 'Table of Contents' and contains a list of items: 'Welcome to the Course', 'Topic 1: The Early Americas and European Exploration', 'Topic 2: European Colonization of North America', and 'Topic 3: The Revolutionary Era'. To the right of this list is a sidebar with options: 'Create Content', 'Rearrange', 'My Content', and 'Teacher Resources'.

10. An additional “eText” icon should open below. This time click the image from the cover.

The screenshot shows the Pearson Realize interface for 'American History Middle Grades' in the 'eText' view. The navigation bar at the top is the same as in the previous screenshot, but the 'eText' link is now highlighted. Below the navigation bar, the course title 'American History Middle Grades' is displayed, followed by a sub-navigation bar with 'Table of contents', 'Resources', 'Standards', 'eText', and 'Tools'. The main content area is titled 'eText' and contains a large image of the textbook cover. A yellow arrow points to the cover image. The text 'Middle Grades eText' is visible to the right of the image.

11. After this screen opens. Click on the image from the cover again.

12. You are now looking at the “eText” or electronic version of your Pearson America History Textbook. Take a moment to explore the features such as the highlighter and notebook by clicking menu in the upper right hand corner.

realizereader

1 The Early...ry-1550)

[ 1 ] The Early Americas and European Exploration (Prehistory–1550)

[ Essential Question ] How much does geography affect people's lives?

The Cliff Palace, built in what is now Colorado during the 1200s

Enduring Understandings

- The physical geography of regions in the early Americas influenced the cultures and societies of those regions.
- Physical geography also helped shape where

Search

- Table of Contents
- Bookmarks
- Annotations & Highlights
- Notebook
- A-Z Glossary

and European Exploration (1550)

geography affect people's

13. There is also an e-reader. Click on the speaker to have the text read to you.

realizereader.

1 The Early...ry-1550)

A video player interface with a black title bar at the top containing the text "[ 1 ] The Early Exploration (P" in white and red. Below the title bar is a grey bar with the text "[ Essential Question ] H" and "lives?". The bottom portion of the video player shows a landscape with a rocky cliffside and green pine trees.

[ 1 ] The Early
Exploration (P

[ Essential Question ] H
lives?