Moving with an IEP

Tuesday, March 12, 2013, 10:00 – 11:00 a.m. EST
Thursday, March 14, 2013, 6:00 – 7:00 p.m. EST

Presented by Greg Maloney

This webinar addresses common concerns that military families face when moving with a child who has an Individualized Education Program. It explains the meaning of “comparable” services, what steps the new school will take when a child enrolls with an IEP, and options available if parents, schools and other providers disagree on services.

Register for the webinar online:

March 12 at 10:00 a.m.: https://www3.gotomeeting.com/register/941090358
March 14 at 6:00 p.m.: https://www3.gotomeeting.com/register/577479918

About the presenter

Greg Maloney is an education consultant providing school improvement and special education support services. Recent projects include reviewing special education services for military-connected children with disabilities, developing the DoD Education Directory and providing educational support to students in foster care. He previously served as state director of special education in both Alaska and Ohio.

If you cannot access the webinar registration page or platform, please email us at MOSwebinars@militaryonesource.mil with your name, email and the title, date and time of the webinar you wish to attend. We will send you a PDF version of the webinar so you will be able to participate by phone.

If you are unable to attend one of our webinars, please look for the archived version at www.militaryonesource.mil/webinar. Most of our webinars, with a few exceptions, are made available on the archive page for viewing later. Please note that the archived version can take up to three weeks to post after the originally scheduled webinar.

Visit www.militaryonesource.mil/webinar for information on upcoming webinars and to view archived webinars.