These standards are aligned to the College and Career Ready Standards for Literacy (CCRSL) and the College, Career, and Civic Life (C3) Framework. Alignment to the C3 Framework promotes the five instructional priorities to:

- Craft questions that spark and sustain Inquiry.
- Cultivate and nurture collaborative civic spaces.
- Integrate content and skills purposefully.
- Promote literacy practices and outcomes.
- Provide tangible opportunities for taking informed action.

DoDEA high school graduates are required to successfully complete 3.0 credits in history/social studies to receive a DoDEA Diploma. The 2.5 credits must be earned in US History, World History and Government and .5 elective credit in an approved social studies course.
